

New Spring & Summer Offerings at Chatty Child™

Individual Tutoring™ Classes with Gianna Cioffi MS-ED

About the Class

Individual Tutoring Classes with Gianna Cioffi MS-ED are unique journeys in language and literacy learning. She brings her unique creative arts background to her 1:1 tutoring classes. She tailors each class to your child's specific language and literacy needs. Gianna integrates movement, visual arts, sensory experiences, and immersive theatre in order to support literacy and language development. She creates multi-sensory experiences to provide holistic and dynamic lessons that target individualized educational goals.

The Details

Gianna will first assess your child's language and literacy needs and through an initial one-hour class. A tutoring program will be developed to address areas of concern. It will be tailored to meet the individual needs and learning style of your child, while utilizing creative pathways to learning language & literacy.

Individual Tutoring classes with Gianna Cioffi MS-ED are offered by appointment only. Gianna is currently accepting new students. Remote and in-person options are available. Strict COVID-19 precautions will be taken, per CDC regulations, during all in-person classes. All educational materials are provided.

Contact us today with all your individual language & literacy tutoring needs. Let's create a tailored tutoring program for your child today!
