hum studios™

Let's meditate together

Who are we?

Heather Lynn Boerner MA CCC/SLP is the founder and creator of hum studios™, a collective space for learning, healing and growing in community. Let's connect and grow together on this magical journey, together.

What do we do?

We will come to your school, hospital or community space and provide interactive & accessible meditation, mindfulness & compassion classes for all ages and abilities.

What do your classes look like?

All classes are curated for the unique needs of each individual learner. Classes are interactive, immersive and an exploratory journey of learning & healing through meditation & mindfulness exercises, art exploration, and various creative pathways that speak to each individual community.

what are the benefits of the hum studios learning paradigm?

hum studios™ meditation, mindfulness and compassion classes are built on a paradigm which entrusts that optimal learning can be best achieved when authentic curiosity, personal experience, and joy intersect to create treasured moments of growth, deep reflection and a sense of inner peace.

While learners participate in a curated hum studios meditation and mindfulness class, each child will develop:

- Improved emotional regulation & understanding
- Improved focus & attention
- Improved frustration tolerance & resilience
- A deeper connection to creative pathways as a means of expression
- Improved self-confidence & inner strength
- Improved sense of peace, calm and happiness
- Improved social connections

what makes the hum studios teaching paradigm unique?

hum studios™ classes are designed and tailored to address the 7 foundational aspects of early learning:

- Language learning
- Cognitive learning
- Social-emotional learning
- Sensory exploration
- Physical movement
- Inner awareness & resilience
- Open curiosity to the world & others

Our class helps learners develop the skills required to be curious, resilient and calm through the day in all areas of life.

Learners of all ages, abilities, cultures, backgrounds and orientations are warmly invited to embark on this magical journey.

Let's explore & grow together.
